How did you hear about the study trip?

- Bahia Street mailing Friend College/university contact Bahia Street website
 Other: _____

Briefly describe your interest in Brazil, Salvador, and/or the study trip?

Disabilities/special services: Every effort will be made to accommodate persons with disabilities, subject to the requirements of the participation agreement and release of liability to be signed by all trip applicants.

Please note:

Prior to departure, all participants will be required to provide:

- a copy of your passport;
- a copy of your Brazilian visa (U.S. citizens only) which takes up to 30 days to process;
- a Bahia Street program participation agreement and release of liability form;
- a completed medical release form.

The last two forms referenced above will be sent to you upon receipt of your application and $200 deposit. As several aspects of the trip are physically demanding, applicants should carefully consider whether they can fulfill all conditions and requirements of the participation agreement and release of liability.

The cost of the trip is $1,800, not including airfare. Please note that the projected cost of this trip per participant is based on an overall budget that presumes a minimum of 8 trip participants and exchange rate of 1.8 Real to the dollar. Participants must understand - as a condition of trip registration - that the trip cost per participant may increase (by an amount not to exceed 15%) if the exchange rate worsens and the overall trip expenses increase accordingly. Any increased costs will be collected as a surcharge from all trip participants at least 14 days prior to departure. Participants will be informed immediately if such a dramatic currency shift occurs.

I certify that the information disclosed by me for this application is true to the best of my knowledge.
